

This is to notify you of my strongest possible opposition to further broadcast ownership consolidation. The deregulation of radio has not served the public, and the regulations limiting consolidation should be strengthened, not weakened. The diversity of media is a requirement for our democracy.